DIFFICULTY

Of Further Advance Near Verdun Admitted by French and Germans

ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO MOVE ARTILLERY

Teutons Would Have To Deploy Under Fire

OF GUNS ON THE HEIGHTS

German Experts Point Out That Their Soldiers Previously Have Shown That Similar Disadvantageous Conditions Have Been Successfully Lull In Infantry Operations.

Paris reports the driving out of the Germans from the few positions which they succeeded in penetrating in the assault.

The new attack gives color to what seems to be the prevailing military opinion in Paris that the German offensive at Verdun had merely halted. It also calls particular attention to the Wever region where the Teutons have advanced along the line south of Fort Douaumont, well to the base of Meuse heights as far as Combres, 12 miles southwest of Verdun.

Dispatches from both Berlin and Paris point to the difficulties of a further advance in this region. The French positions, Paris points out, stretch along the heights from which the ground drops abruptly to the Woivre plain with its moist clay soil, across which the transport of the heaviest of the German artillery, on ground away from the high roads is held to be almost impossible while attacking troops under the fire of the French guns on the heights.

German commentators, however, advance the view that the Teutons have previously shown that similar disadvantageous conditions could be successfully met, the storming of the heights just to the south by the Germans in 1914 when St. Mihiel was captured being pointed to in this connection.

Reports of the capture of a German sea raider, either the auxiliary cruiser Moewe, or the cruiser Roon, came to hand today from South American sources. The capture is said to have been effected by British cruisers which took their prize to Trinidad, off the Venezuelan coast. It was a crew from the Moewe that brought the British steamer Appam a prize into Newport News.

After a lull in infantry operations in the vicinity of Verdun since the early part of the week, there has been a resumption of the German offensive in the Woivre region. A violent bombardment was followed by a spirited attack on the French at Fresnes, 10 miles southeast of Verdun.

MACHINISTS

TO NUMBER OF 500 STRIKE AT PIERCE-ARROW AUTOMOBILE PLANT

More Than 1,500 Remain at Work—Plant Has Large War Orders Filled.

[Associated Press Telegram] Buffalo, N. Y., March 2.—Five hundred machinists of the Pierce-Arrow Automobile company went on strike today in response to the strike vote taken at a meeting of the machinists union. More than 1,500 machinists remained at work. Only a small proportion of these men belongs to the union and it was considered unlikely today that any considerable number would join the strikers. The plant has large war orders.

Two hundred of 900 employed at the Curtiss Aeroplane company joined the strikers. Several other small concerns were forced to close when their machinists walked out. Union officials predicted that 10,000 would be affected by Saturday.

The men demand an eight-hour day, time and a half for overtime, no Sunday work and a wage scale with a minimum of forty cents an hour.

ITALY TO CONTINUE TO ARM HER SHIPS ONLY FOR DEFENSE.

[Associated Press Telegram] Rome, March 1, via Paris, March 1, 2:50 p. m.—(Delayed.)—The Italian ambassador at Washington, Count Macehi, has been instructed to notify the American government that notwithstanding the German and Austrian decrees regarding the sinking of armed merchantmen, Italian merchantmen will continue to carry armament.

The ambassador also has been instructed to say that Italian merchantmen will use their artillery only for defensive purposes.

British Cruisers Capture German Sea Raider, Moewe, According to News Reports

[Associated Press Telegram]

Buenos Aires, March 2.—Press dispatches from Montevideo say that a steamer arriving from Europe intercepted near the coast of Brazil a wireless message stating that British cruisers had captured the German auxiliary cruiser Moewe.

The Moewe, it is said, was taken by the British cruisers to the island of Trinidad.

The American steamer Santa Barbara has arrived at Montevideo, her captain making the announcement that a French cruiser which put out from Dakar on the west coast of Africa encountered a German raider, name not given, and opened fire on her. Under cover of darkness the German ship got away. She was, however, damaged on her upper works by the French fire.

There is some doubt, however, as to the identity of the German vessel reported to have been captured. Another version of the account is that the vessel in question is the German cruiser Roon.

The Moewe first came into prominence with the arrival at Hampton Roads several weeks ago of the British ship Appam in charge of a German prize crew. She brought word of a mysterious German commerce raider, the Moewe, which was roaming the seas and had captured and sunk seven British merchantmen and admiralty transports, in addition to capturing the Appam.

Despatches from the Canary Islands late last month reported the arrival of the British steamer Westburn with a German prize crew on board, said to be from the Moewe. According to these reports the Moewe, continuing her activities after the capture of the Appam and the seven other British vessels, between January 16 and February 9, sank five British steamers off the coast of Brazil.

A vigorous search for the Moewe was begun by the British admiralty. The Moewe was reported to be a tramp steamer fitted with guns for preying on commerce of the enemy.

The German cruiser Roon was said to have escorted the Moewe when the latter captured the Appam. A report that the Roon had been captured by the British cruiser Drake off Bermuda was published last month, but subsequently was denied.

The island of Trinidad is one of the British West Indies, lying off the coast of Venezuela.

Enemy bombarded violently last night. Le Mort Homme (the dead man) at the Cote de l'Oie between Malancourt and Forges as well as the principal crossings of the river Meuse. There was little activity on the part of the artillery to the east of the Meuse.

"In the Woivre district after an intense retaliatory fire from the artillery the enemy yesterday evening delivered a spirited attack on our positions at Fresnes. They were at once driven back by our counter-attack from the few positions which they had succeeded in penetrating."

"In the Lorraine district a bombardment of several hours duration against the Sainte Marie farm to the west of Seigne was followed by an attack on the present enemy which resulted in complete failure."

"In Alsace certain tentative movements undertaken by strong German patrols against our outposts in the valleys of the Lauch were repulsed by the use of hand grenades."

It is thought more likely they are merely resting before starting afresh with greater energy. It is believed in many quarters that the attack on Verdun was only a preliminary to operations on a much larger scale for the French once and for all. However, that may be, it is affirmed that General Joffre is fully prepared for all eventualities. So far only the local French reserves have been called upon at Verdun, the great general reserve forces remaining intact for use in repelling other heavy onslaughts or for carrying out a great counter-attack when the opportune moment comes.

The exact figures of the French losses at Verdun have been given to the committee of military affairs of the chamber of deputies by Colonel Boncabelle, chief secretary to General Gallieni, minister of war. It is stated that they were not high.

The Petit Parisien says that the German losses today in the Verdun fighting amount to between 125,000 and 130,000 and constitute about one-third of the German effectives actively employed.

No news has been received of Lieut. Colonel Driant, a son-in-law of the late Gen. Boulanger and Deputy for Nancy, since the beginning of the battle in which he commanded two battalions of light infantry.

The text of the war office's announcement reads:

"In the Ardennes district to the east of the road running from Neuville to La Folie, we caused the explosion of a mine located under an old crater which was occupied by the enemy. We took possession of the new crater."

Who Confessed Setting Fire to Hotel, Glad Ordeal Is Over

KERN AND GRUBB ARE STILL IN JAIL

Thus Far Not Being Able To Furnish Bonds

ADDITIONAL AFFIDAVITS

May Be Filed Against Men By Prosecutor Horner But This Has Not Been Done Yet—Grubb Says He Has Been Promised No Immunity For Giving Details Of Arson Plot.

Up until this afternoon no additional affidavits had been filed by the county prosecutor against Augustus O. Kern and Arthur Grubb, detained at the county jail on $5,000 bail for the former and $2,000 for the latter, on an arson charge preferred against them in Justice Fletcher S. Scott's court yesterday.

After Grubb had confessed the night before to setting fire to the Kern Hotel in Second street on the night of January 6, 1914, and which resulted in the death of five people.

At the preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon before Justice Scott, Kern pleaded not guilty and was remanded to the county jail on the sum of $5,000 for his appearance next Monday morning at 9 o'clock, at which time it is believed that an affidavit will be read charging him with a crime of greater degree than arson.

Grubb also was arraigned before Justice Scott yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty to the charge of arson. He was bound over to the next grand jury in the sum of $2,000 bail.

An Advocate representative interviewed Grubb today and the latter stated that he was 35 years old and that his parents were dead. He said that he had a brother living who had some property but that he had not seen him for some time and he did not know whether he could induce him to go on his bond or not. He also said that he had hopes that one of his friends for whom he worked might be induced to sign his bond.

"I am glad the fearful thing is over," said Grubb. "I have been wanting to get this thing off my mind and yet I dreaded making the confession, not knowing what they might do to me. I did not want to do it in the first place as I was afraid something would happen. We only intended to destroy the piano, and look what has happened."

"What do you think they will do with me? I have not been promised any immunity for my confession and I made it of my own free will and volition. I told the officials that when I answered all their questions and made the confession, and yet I have cleared up this thing for them and surely that will have some weight in my favor."

Grubb appeared to be suffering from relaxation and yet he was bearing up wonderfully well when the reporter talked to him. He said (Continued on Page 6, Col. 4.)

May Start Work on Subways This Spring; Both Companies Practically Are Satisfied

City Solicitor Ralph Norpell returned at noon Wednesday after a trip lasting several days in which he visited officials of the two railroads at Baltimore and Pittsburgh, and the city's engineers at Columbus, on business relating to the subway contract. After his return to the city, he received a telegram from officials of the B. & O. agreeing to meet the solicitor and officials of the Pennsylvania company at Pittsburgh next week. A meeting had been tentatively arranged for Friday or Saturday of this week but without consulting the convenience of the B. & O. officials interested. They wired that they could not attend the meeting Saturday but would confer with the Newark officials and railroad men next week, the day to be selected later.

The B. & O. officials signed the contract after making a slight change in the plans with reference to the track which now connects the Lake Erie division with the Newark and Columbus divisions. The B. & O. company desires a continuous track from Columbus to the north via Newark to take care of possible future needs without the necessity of switching cars in the yards. Whether this will be acceptable to the Pennsylvania company is problematical as the proposed track will have some effect on the Pennsylvania company's platform in the proposed new union station. This is one of the questions which will be discussed at the Pittsburgh meeting. Its settlement to the satisfaction of all concerned will remove the last obstacle to the signing of the contract, unless some new problem arises in the meantime.

Local officials still are hopeful that the actual work of construction will be started this spring. Both companies interested appear to concur in this desire and it is believed that a satisfactory adjustment of the various points will be made at next week's meeting.

Solicitor Norpell has spent considerable time in conferring with the officials and had expected this week's trip to wind up the matter but was disappointed.

URNS UP ALIVE; AMERICAN WAS REPORTED SHOT

Cincinnati, March 2.—The condition of George B. Cox, former Republican leader and widely known in both state and national republican circles, remained practically the same today. Mr. Cox was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday evening and by the time the stroke was allowed to become public it was announced that his condition was decidedly critical. His physician announced this morning that there had been no improvement during the night.

FLOOD PLANS IN MIAMI VALLEY TO COSTS $23,539,872

[Associated Press Telegram]

Dayton, March 2.—The official flood plans for the protection of the Miami valley citizens and property represent an outlay of $23,539,872. It is expected that all legal entanglements will be out of the way by the latter part of this year so that contracts may be awarded in time to begin actual flood prevention work in the spring of 1917. Five retaining basins for dry reservoirs as they are commonly called, will be formed by dams built across valleys of the Miami, Mad and Stillwater rivers and on the Twin and Loraine creeks.

This is the substance of the official flood plan submitted today to the Miami conservancy directors by Arthur E. Morgan, engineer. The work now is approaching the point where actual prevention service will be rendered to the Miami valley. During the early part of April the board of directors of the conservancy district will hear complaints on these official plans and if the directors decide that despite the complaints the plans will be submitted to the conservancy court composed of nine common pleas court judges in the nine counties in the district.

Illinois Operators' Attitude Stumbling Block

SUGGEST UNIFORM BASIS

Some Participants in Conference Would Establish Same Level of Wages in All States Affected With Run of Mine Proposals The Foundation of Payment.

[Associated Press Telegram]

New York, March 2.—Bituminous coal miners and operators from the middle west are still apart today on the matter of agreeing on an increase in wages, for the miners.

When the sub-committee of employers and employees meet neither side had anything definite to offer and adjournment was taken until tomorrow to permit conferences among the various groups of operators. It was said that one obstacle in the way of an agreement of the tonnage increase demand of the miners is the attitude of Illinois operators who are reluctant to grant an advance in wages until the basic mine run rate for Indiana is brought up to the level of the Danville, Ill., price. The Indiana operators are opposing any change in the basic rate for their territory.

It was suggested by some participants in the conference that the same level be established for all the states affected by the present conference. When such a level rate was figured, it was found to be 48.88 cents a ton, which is higher than the present Indiana, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania rates and lower than the Illinois basic price.

While the soft coal operators and miners were holding informal conferences, the anthracite employers and employees came on the scene and began their negotiations for a new wage contract to go into effect April 1.

CLEMENCY

RECOMMENDED FOR MAN SO HE CAN SUPPORT DEPENDENT MOTHER.

Board of Pardons Also Large Commutation of One Life Sentence—Some Rejected.

[Associated Press Telegram]

Columbus, March 2.—The state board of pardons today recommended to Gov. Willis that he commute the penitentiary sentence of Henry Williams, convicted in Franklin county in 1914, of stealing an automobile so that he may be released soon and support his dependent mother. Williams took the automobile to Portsmouth and sold it there. The board also recommended pardon for Melvin McDams, convicted of breaking into a store at Williamsburg, Clermont county. He is now on parole. Prosecutor Speidel of Clermont county wrote to the board that McDams was under the influence of a woman when he committed the crime.

Commutation of his life sentence to 20 years was recommended for John Fagler, sentenced from Cuyahoga county in 1910 for assault on a young girl. The following were rejected:

Charles Kovacs, Franklin county burglary.

George Scordulis, Hamilton county murder, life.

James Baxter, Belmont county burglary.

William Hartman, Cuyahoga county burglary.

John Schultz, Cuyahoga, burglary.

Albert Frazer, Lucas, burglary.

William H. Brown, Cuyahoga, manslaughter.

Nick Krznovic, Cuyahoga county burglary.

Complete pardon also was recommended for Carey S. Beidler of Lucas county. He has been serving a life sentence since 1912 for having shot his wife whom he charged was living a life of shame.

The board suggested pardon for John Kriscak, convicted in Garrettsville county, 1913, of having killed a man, and sentenced to life imprisonment. Doubt concerning his sanity was expressed, and for Andrew Kovacs, convicted in Marion county of burglarizing a store to get clothes for his family.

A Brooklyn Druggist Praises the Great Kidney Remedy

I have handled Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy for twenty years and have heard plenty of favorable reports concerning it from my customers. They are satisfied with the results obtained from its use. I know of many cases where Swamp-Root has cured Stone in the Bladder, Gall Stones, Gravel, Catarrh or Inflammation of Bladder, Liver trouble and Rheumatism. I have used it in my own family with good results, and I heartily endorse Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and believe it has good curative value.

Senator Gore defended his resolution.

"In my judgment any American placing Germany's interest above those of the United States, is a traitor," declared Senator Gore. "And there are many traitors of that class in America. I think any American placing Great Britain's interest above ours is a traitor, and there are as many of that class. These two types are equally offensive and reprehensible."

"I believe the law gives neutrals the right to travel on belligerent ships. The right is a survival of piracy and ought to be withdrawn. The law once gave them the right to hold slaves."

Perhaps anyone of a hundred million Americans has the right to risk his own life, and any madcap American citizen may boast that it is his inalienable, his sacred right under international law to involve the nation in war. But I believe the hundred million others have the right to be protected against the recklessness of the one.

Senator Gore said he would endeavor to present the whole issue as he sees it at another time, and added:

"Whatever may have been the conversation between the president and Senator Stone, I hope the impression received by me and others was a mistaken one. I possess only finite wisdom. I have been doing my duty as I see it under the evidence and lights that avail. I have no disposition to interfere with diplomatic negotiations in so far as they do not infringe on the constitutional right of congress to declare war. I am not willing to embark on war with Germany or any other nation on this issue. Whenever the vital interests of the United States or the essential rights of American citizens are violated or outraged, I will go as far as any one to arm the president with every available power to wage war, whether it be with Germany or any nation under the sun. I have no choice of enemies."

Senator Gore took his seat and for a moment there was tense silence.

"My conviction," continued Senator Gore, "is that congress has the right to say to the American people for the welfare of the country and for their own preservation, 'stay off these ships.'"

"The resolution expressly states that it does not withdraw such a right. It specifically asks that Americans forbear to exercise their right."

There is absolutely no misapprehension here on that point," interrupted Senator Lodge. "It only says that if Americans exercise their right this government will withdraw its protection."

"I would like to ask a question," said Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho. "Suppose we pass the Gore resolution as drawn, and suppose as time proceeds some submarine destroys a ship and 100 American lives, would the senator from Oklahoma be willing to forego the right of the American government to demand reparation for their loss?"

"My judgment is," said Senator Gore, "that the warning would serve the purpose of inducing American citizens not to embark on armed vessels and that there would be no danger of trouble being thus encountered."

If the president had always been permitted," said Senator James, "to handle this question without the impression being created in Germany that he did not speak with the nation behind him, we might have gotten Germany to agree that the lives of all neutrals should be protected on the high seas."

Senator Gore with feeling retorted he appreciated the implication, but declared he considered the worst of all cowardices was one who lacked the courage to do right. He then gave his explanation of the reason which led him to introduce his resolution.

The vice president called upon Senator Shields to continue with the water power bill and a discussion, and the international debate was closed for the day.

"I desire to state the international situation as I understand it," said Senator Stone.

"A sharp issue has been defined between Germany and Great Britain as to the status of armed merchantmen. Germany contends that armed vessels are the equivalent of auxiliary war vessels and has announced her policy to regard armed merchantmen as warships and a subject to the rules of war.

"On the other hand Great Britain contends that under international law merchantmen have the right to be armed for defensive purposes and that armed merchantmen are entitled under the law to the same immunity as unarmed ships, without regard to cargo. She has announced her intention to carry out that policy."

"That is the issue between these two governments."

"Now where does the United States come in? IN THIS WAY. If both persist in these courses, neither yielding to each other, nor to the importunities of neutral nations, and if Germany attacks an armed merchantman and any American citizen were on board, we would have no cause to interfere, unless we proceed on the altruistic theory of obligations to humanity."

"To my mind this emergency is of high importance. The president, senators and representatives should speak with each other and with the country, free from political bias. We should wear our hearts on our sleeves so we may know our positions exactly."

"The president's attitude is this: He supports the contention that belligerent merchantmen have the right to bear arms for defensive purposes, but he does not say, nor do I, and I doubt if any one does, what constitutes defensive purposes. I cannot discuss the question now, but will merely state that in duty to myself, to my constituents and to my country, I will discuss here at length in the near future. The president is opposed to the Gore resolution. He is not only opposed to laws on the subject but to any form of official warning, keeping people off belligerent vessels."

"If I could have my way, I would take some step to save this country from becoming embroiled in the European war through the recklessness of some thoughtless citizens."

"The president has written Representative Poincaré that the resolution has been a source of embarrassment to him in the diplomatic negotiation with the belligerents. I am sure that is so. I have diligently sought to prevent resolutions on this subject being adopted and sought to allay agitation on this subject. Now we are informed that the resolution must be defeated."

Senator Lodge replied that the president had a right to ask for a vote on the precise proposition of warning Americans, inasmuch as the issue had hampered his negotiations, so that he could know whether he could proceed with confidence behind him.

Senator John Sharp Williams, democrat, staunchly defended the president.

"I have listened with profound interest to what has been said by the senator from Missouri," said Senator Lodge. "I thoroughly appreciate the gravity of the situation to which he has called attention. I agree entirely with him that this is not a party question. I also agree that our first duty is to dispose of the precise issue that has been raised by the discussion to which he has referred."

"I think the president, hampered as he tells us in the letter to Representative Poincaré, has a right to ask for a vote on the precise proposition in order that he may know whether he can go on with his negotiations with congress behind him or whether congress takes the view of the belligerent power with which he is negotiating. I hope the senate will take an early vote on the precise question as to whether American citizens can travel on armed merchantmen, a right which has not been questioned for centuries past."

Senator Williams, weak from illness, spoke with great deliberation and feeling.

"There are times in the history of all parties," said he, "when men come to the parting of the ways, to an unavoidable conflict, when each must stand as best he may for that which he thinks to be brave, just and patriotic. That time I think has come for you and for me concerning the proposition that now faces us."

"Furthermore if a German warship without warning should attack and sink a merchantman, the president proposes to consider the attack a lawful act. He will be disposed to hold the German government to strict accountability and if the German government persisted, he would be tempted to sever diplomatic relations and submit the matter to congress, which, under the constitution, is the war making body."

"If it must come to this, and I must disagree with the president, and if I must disagree with my colleagues I must face this as a political question. My duty is clear. I cannot but believe that if a belligerent merchantman is armed, whether for defense or offensive purpose, if it is transporting war material, it is the equivalent of a war vessel."

"The time has come," continued Senator Williams, "when the question states itself in this way: 'Shall I acclaim America first or shall I acclaim Deutschland Uber Alles?"

"I have the highest contempt for one who would inject politics in this situation. Politicians looking for a radical vote of some kind to be gained from this are not only poor Americans but poor politicians."

"The moment a factional element, participating in the government of the United States shall implant a radical element, that moment they will consolidate against them every other radical element and all that great element of citizens who are just Americans without frills, without politics and without hypocrisies or anything else. They have a right to be here."

"We are here if we have the right to participate in American government, simply as Americans."

"Therefore, American ideals and everything that responds to the noblest in America can be relied upon to push aside any man whose ideas of politics consists of pleasing some radical prejudice."

"Through resolutions and in speeches and whispers, the chief magistrate has been prodded and nagged and dared. To do what? To surrender the initiative which the constitution places with him and let congress take the lead in foreign relations."

"Now the patience of a very patient man has been exhausted. Now he says, 'You have given comfort to foreign nations, you have given them a contempt for your own government, you have weakened my hand, now, I want a show down.'"

"And I believe it will be a show up. I am through."

"You have nagged and prodded him until he has picked up the gauntlet and said:

"If the patriotism of congress is behind me, let's find it out and if it is not behind me, let's find that out."

"The president has offered no new doctrine. The proposition of armed merchantmen is a principle recognized in the war with Spain and in the Civil war. What Germany wants to do, what she wants us to do is to change international law and she is trying to make us a accomplices criminals."

Reports to the administration today were that yesterday ten members of the foreign affairs committee were in favor of reporting out the McLemore resolution to warn Americans off armed ships. There are twenty-one members of the committee. Some of those who expressed opinions were opposed to the McLemore resolution, because it contains expressions not connected directly with the issue on which the president insists on a vote.

A meeting of the committee which was to have been held this morning was postponed until three o'clock this afternoon when Chairman Flood will deliver the president's message. The president had no engagements with leaders of the house or senate today but was keeping in constant touch and prepared to see any members if necessary.

Up to the present Mr. Wilson has not been asked to see any committee of either house to send any facts to congress, or to appear before congress in person as has been informally suggested. It was said at the White House that no such questions would be taken up until they were presented.

Timing officers considered the proposed vote of confidence as a "soft soap" resolution to endorse the president and at the same time warn Americans off armed ships. They reiterated that no such resolution would be satisfactory.

"This is a clear cut issue," said one administration official, "and we do not want it muddled."

There were some indications, according to these officials that the president's stand was having the desired effect on the house. They felt that the rules committee was ready to act and that the only obstacle now was in the foreign committee. In his talk with Representative Flood today the president said flatly that what was wanted was a vote on the McLemore resolution or a similar one. He made it plain that he wants the armed ship agitation disposed of once and for all, so it will not come up later to embarrass the diplomatic negotiations.

President Wilson told Chairman Flood of the House foreign affairs committee early today that he would consent to no compromise on the armed ship issue and desired a direct vote on a resolution warning Americans off armed ships of belligerent nations.

Washington, March 2.—Administration forces, faced with delay in the house, turned today to the senate to carry out President Wilson's demand for the defeat of resolutions warning Americans off armed ships. Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee announced openly from the floor that he was in accord with the president's action, proposed, however, that the senate take an adjournment instead of another recess and thereby get into a new legislative day, relieving the parliamentary situation, which thus far has held Senator Gore's resolution coming to a vote. His action was taken after a conference of administration leaders who were satisfied they had the votes to defeat the Gore resolution and demonstrate to Germany that the demonstrations against the president's foreign policy do not have the support of congress.

"It has been decided to bring the resolution up for action as soon as possible but probably not today," said Senator James of Kentucky, one of the administration supporters. "We have got the votes in the senate to smash it."

Senator Stone, at the outset of his proposed statement of the international situation today, he understood it. Senator Stone declared it was his hope that something could be done at once to bring the president and congress more closely in accord on the issue and that he was framing a substitute for all pending resolutions on the subject.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, ranking Republican member of the foreign relations committee declared he was in accord with the senator's desire of prompt action and agreed that the issue was more important than anything else now before congress.

The President believing that a majority of the rank and file of the house is ready to stand by him, has asked that one of the anti-administration resolutions to warn Americans off belligerent vessels be brought to a vote so that agitation in congress no longer may embarrass him in the submarine negotiations with Germany. But the men who control the parliamentary machinery, most of whom have favored the warning proposals, are employing every effort to prevent a show down.

After a day of conferences and in action by the house foreign affairs committee, word went forth from the White House last night that the President would accept no compromise; that he wanted congress to pass upon one of the pending resolutions and that no resolution of confidence in the administration or other device to prevent members from recording their position would be acceptable.

Chairman Flood was instructed by the foreign affairs committee to see the President today for a further discussion of the situation. He also was authorized to seek data at the state department on the negotiations with Germany, and to report back to a committee meeting before the house convened for today's session.

It was intimated that Mr. Flood might ask permission to take the entire membership of his committee to the White House with him, though there was no announcement on the subject.

Action on the President's request probably will not be long delayed. If the foreign affairs committee continues to put off bringing the issue before the house, the rules committee probably will be urged to carry out the request originally made by the President in his letter to Chairman Poincaré and report out a rule incorporating a warning resolution and providing for a vote after a limited debate.

The President's friends declare that decisive defeat of the resolution would follow.

Those leaders of the house who favored warning legislation and have refrained from openly advocating it only because of administrative pressure, still were talking today of compromise or of doubt as to exactly what the President desired. On the senate side of the capitol, action by the house is being awaited. It is conceded that the President will be supported whenever the question is brought to a vote there.

It was made known last night that the latest German assurances conveyed by Count von Bernstorff regarding the conduct of submarine warfare, were not so broad and satisfactory as those previously given. But the administration will make no further move in the controversy for the present, and the proposed agreement for settlement of the Lusitania case will remain unaccepted while the President waits on congress.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your kidneys, and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few minutes. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, sniffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

Colds Need Attention.

Internal throat and chest troubles produce inflammation, irritation, swelling or soreness and unless checked at once, are likely to lead to serious trouble. Caught in time Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey loosens the phlegm and destroys the germs which have settled in the throat or nose. It is soothing and healing. Pine is antiseptic; honey is soothing—both together possess excellent medicinal qualities for fighting cold germs. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. 25c all Druggists.

GO NO FARTHER

The Evidence Is At Your Door.

Newark proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

G. W. Coulter, manager of the J. H. Swisher Cigar Co., 43 German St., Newark, says: "Kidney trouble came on me like the thrust of a knife. A sharp pain caught me through the small of my back and for the year and a half following, I was in poor health. I couldn't work steadily and felt badly. I doctored, wore plasters, in fact, did everything, but didn't get relief. Mornings I had to drag myself around and it was hard for me to dress. I couldn't stoop or bend. Often I had to lie down again. I felt so utterly worn-out and weak. I had rheumatic pains in my limbs. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me a lasting cure."

$200 REWARD HAS NOT BEEN PAID BY OFFICIALS

The county commissioners were at their office today and when asked what action they had taken regarding the payment of the $200 reward offered by themselves and Sheriff Chas. H. Swank for the apprehension of Stinson Shackleford, replied that they were waiting for further evidence before anything would be done in the matter.

The president of the board, Mr. Jos. H. Orr, said: "We are told that a fellow named 'Slick' Arnold claims to have given the original tip which led to the discovery of Shackleford. But in a several column interview which he gave a local paper other than the Advocate, regarding the shooting, the claims absolutely that he knew nothing of the affair and was very much surprised at the outcome of it. In the interview with the reporter he stated absolutely that he had nothing whatever to do with the case. Now if 'Slick' Arnold told the reporter that, how can he tell us that he was the informant?"

Mr. Orr said the board wished to be fair in the matter, but they also wished to be sure and that they would make no award to any one until their proof to the same had been fully and authentically established.

The matter can be settled just as soon as Chief James Sheridan informs the board who "tipped" him off to the fact that the suspect was at the Arnold home in Cincinnati.

NEW ORDINANCE IS MADE READY FOR GAS RATE

Solicitor Norpell after his return to the city yesterday took up the question of drafting a new ordinance fixing the gas rate in the city to take the place of the present rate which expires March 5. The ordinance will be presented to council Monday night unless it is decided to hold a special meeting in the meantime.

Councilman Shirer's ordinance fixing the rate at 25, 27 1/2 and 30 cents net for two, three and four years respectively, was defeated by agreement, according to a statement made today. The question was discussed at a conference of councilmen and labor organization representatives. The new rate, it is understood, will be fixed at 25 cents and the ordinance will stipulate that the company must furnish a pressure of four ounces at point of consumption. This, it is said, will be satisfactory to those consumers who have taken an active interest in council deliberations.

VANDAL RUINS ZINC IMAGE ON OLD FOUNTAIN

This morning about 8 o'clock a fellow pushing a cart stopped at the home of Ed Williams, 12 Locust street, and entering the yard pried off the zinc image on the fountain. His act was seen by Mrs. Homer Jones and at first she thought possibly the fellow had been ordered to come and remove the image. Later she called up Mr. Williams at the Arcade store and he at once started out to do a little detective work.

Mr. Williams found his image at a junk shop on Second street near the railroad, but it was in a hundred pieces, having been broken up by the fellow who stole it. He received $3.90 for the same. The dealer told who sold it to him and Mr. Williams will swear to a warrant for his arrest.

The image will be remembered as that which topped the Judge Pollett fountain, as it was called when first erected a number of years ago. At that time it was one of the first to be installed in any residence lawn in the city and for years was an ornament in the front lawn of the old Pollett home. Later Mr. Williams had it removed to the back yard.

ENTRY LIST FOR KENTUCKY DERBY IS LARGEST YET

Stake Run in May With $10,000 Added, Will Be Worth $15,000 the Winner.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Louisville, March 2.—Entries to the forty-second annual renewal of the Kentucky derby closed at midnight last night with what horsemen predict will be the largest number of possible starters in the history of the stake. The list, however, probably will not be announced for two or three weeks. It is known that it will include all of last year's two-year-old successors.

The race this year, with $10,000 added money, will be worth approximately $15,000 to the winner. The Kentucky racing commission has not yet announced racing dates for the various tracks but the derby will be run at Churchill Downs, probably May 6 or May 13.

The derby this year, as was the case last year, when Harry Payne Whitney's filly Regret was the winner, apparently, will be a contest between eastern and western owned horses.

Among the many turfmen who will probably have entries are: Harry Payne Whitney, Andrew Miller, Jefferson Livingston, John W. Schorr, Schuyler Parsons, George J. Long, Thomas C. McDowell, J. E. Madden, Foxall R. Keene, August Belmont, George M. Hendrie and C. H. Mackay.

Of the crack three-year-olds it is thought among those who have been named to go in the race are Thunler, full brother to Regret; Dodge George Smith, Bulse, King Neptune Bromo, Gillies, Big Smoke, Ting-A-Ling, Candle and Tom Edward.

The derby is at a mile and a quarter for three-year-olds.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter
 March 10, 1882, at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 4, 1879.

As he can't hire any lawyers, some dead man was blamed for the horrible New Haven railroad wreck.

The people who had the grip this winter found that after they recovered it took them six weeks to get well.

Pittsburgh is said to be short of nickels. There must be embarrassing moments when the contribution box comes around.

Some public officials' idea of how to secure greater efficiency is to be provided with an automobile which they can use nights and Sundays.

Some people want to run Colonel Goethals for president, but it is feared from his experiences in the Culebra Cut that he would not be able to stop the landslides.

The newspapers may not be able to find space to print the congressional roll calls, but there is always room for the names of those present at last night's social dance.

It was surprising how the opposition to Preparedness vanished when it was learned that the militia in all the congressional districts would get some government money.

After voting for increased appropriations, the congressmen will go on to their respective national conventions to insert planks promising a reduction in cost of living.

The valor of the Turks who fled from Erzerum is not fully demonstrated, but they don't need to run any farther to convince the world absolutely of their discretion.

White and light colored hats for men will be stylish this year, owing to lack of dyes. How fine they will look on a hot day after one has handled them with perspiring fingers.

It is suggested that Prosperity Day should be celebrated by putting in a good day's work, but digging up a five spot for a grand blow out is a more popular method of observance.

People who want to get their names in the papers secure much better results by going in bathing at Palm Beach than by attending the sessions of the National Educational Association.

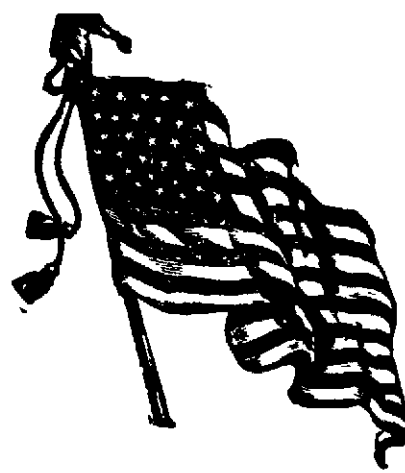

Some states are observing Post Card Day. On this festive occasion many thousands of people will be honorably receiving those witty and original printed cards saying "Do it now" or "Get busy."

Evidences of the long expected Great Spring Drive will soon be found in the taking up of carpets, the beating of rugs, and general inability of the man of the house to find any of his possessions.

It is said $10,000,000 worth of jewels are being worn by one group of society women at Palm Beach. Meanwhile there are millions of women who make themselves very attractive and charming without having to resort to costly artificial aid.

Daily History Class—March 2.
 1783—Sam Houston, hero of Tennessee and Texas, born; died 1863.
 1815—Austrian warships bombarded the Montenegrin seaport Antivari. Germany replied to inquiries made by the United States that her submarine policy would be modified if the allies would permit food supplies to reach the civilian population of Germany.

Early Fruits And Vegetables.

The enormous amounts of early fruits and vegetables shipped from the Southern climates into Northern markets are one sign of growing wealth and luxury in this country. It is a business that increases with every spring.

The eating of fresh food out of season was once considered a costly and wasteful luxury. It is so today for families of moderate incomes. But facilities for transportation have so improved and Southern farming has so expanded, that such products are often much cheaper than one could expect.

People to whom money comes easy can hardly spend it in any more wholesome way. The fresh tang of new garden products stimulates the human body. And the business employs a small army of people in healthful open air employments and brings prosperity to many rural districts.

Keeping Up Highways.

The season for working on the highways approaches. To many public officials, the problem of keeping up the roads with the limited appropriations available, in face of modern automobile and motor truck business, seems almost insoluble. There are observers who say the roads are growing worse rather than better, in spite of the millions being spent. The road builders of ten years ago did not realize the heavy strain that would have to be met.

Touring motorists say they do not usually find the worst strips of road in the rural districts, at least not on the main lines of travel. They get their worst jolts in sizable and substantial towns. It is here that the motor trucks and other heavy teaming tear up the surface, and make many a handsome street one long bumpy surface.

A visitor from another city was giving some interesting experience from his home town. The appropriation for streets was cut down one-third two years ago, and no permanent work could be attempted. The superintendent decided that all they could do was simply to keep the surface from growing worse. So the man filled up every little hollow they could find, and rolled it down solidly.

As soon as new hollows started, they were filled and rolled. When heavy showers came, the water ran off and formed few puddles. There were no depressions in which heavy trucks could get a leverage, and grind out still deeper holes. It was his opinion that under this policy of watchfulness, the roads had held their own and probably improved, though with a smaller expenditure.

It is of course a mistake to stop permanent work on the roads. Every municipality should do some of it each year. But the policy of instant watchfulness to stop hollows from enlarging into holes will do wonders. A shovelful in a little depression today may save a cartload next month.

An Interesting Manual.

The forthcoming Arbor and Bird Manual, published by the state superintendent of public instruction, and distributed free to all the schools of the state, will be the best and most original yet published in Ohio. Credit for this is largely due to the former state superintendent, Frank W. Miller, who is now at the head of the Dayton schools.

This interesting manual has much space devoted to birds and some articles from the state educational agent of the National Audubon Society. Every Ohio teacher, who has the least interest in trees and birds will value this manual.

Back of the President.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

The strength of the President in the handling of international relations has from the first depended on the support given him by citizens of all parties throughout the nation. The President has been speaking for this great body of Americans, loyal to their national ideals and jealous of their national rights; of Americans who place American integrity above the expediency and have the courage of their honest convictions.

And the situation in this respect is not changed by the newly developed uneasiness on the part of certain Democrats in Congress who would wrest the direction of foreign relations from the hands of the President and assume the role themselves. Still the President's strength is to be measured by the public sentiment behind him.

It is well, accordingly, that the issue between the President and those in Congress who would undermine his authority in foreign relations has been put before the public for consideration. The President's letter to Senator Stone is an excellent exposition both of the Administration's course so far in the difficult negotiations over Germany's under-sea policies and the President's present stout insistence that no disastrous backward step shall be taken.

Any fair survey of the present situation leads inevitably to the conclusion that to carry out the threat of the Congressional malcontents would be fatal to the cause which the United States has espoused from the first in the name of civilization and for the benefit of all neutral peoples. To acquiesce in the acts of a group of belligerents who seek to override international law and substitute expediency for right on the high seas would be to invite a continuation of insults and an increasing contempt abroad for those ideals to which America has thus far pinned her faith.

Back of the President stands free America. Back of the president stands a line of precedent in the handling of international relations unbroken since Washington. Back of the President will continue to stand every American who esteems the honor of his nation above the exigencies of petty politics.

No "Pork Barrel" Now.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

Congressman Ashbrook, of Ohio, is to be commended for the stand he has taken on "pork barrel" building bills for this session. He is against that sort of cumulative appropriation—"You help me and I will help you," regardless of the merits of any projects. It is bad legislation for any session because it spends the people's money, intended for a common purpose, to gratify the pride of a few localities, in many cases without meeting any real need, or clothing the need so extravagantly as to run amuck with all business sense. It is especially bad for this session because the revenues of the government are making a deficit, and the great problem of this same congress is to find the money, not only for ordinary expenses, but also for extraordinary ones—the most extraordinary of all, the adequate defense of the country.

As chairman of one of the subcommittees to which appropriation items go, Mr. Ashbrook has to deal with importunate fellow-congressmen who are eager to thrust a hand into the treasury. He is opposing them, declaring that he will resign the chairmanship before he will approve such a raid. He ought not to be compelled or permitted to resign. He is the right man in the right place. Congressmen who have not the grace to recognize the imperative need for economy in such matters should be forced to recognize it.

Limit in Sight.
 Gasoline is still climbing. Pretty soon the automobile manufacturers will have to combine in self-defense and either get control of the "gas" supply or make a bid for the discovery of a substitute fuel. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

Disloyalty.
 There can be no greater service to citizens of foreign blood than making it clear that the man who preaches disloyalty to America does not speak for them, that the wrong such persons do to America goes side by side with the wrong they do to the loyal men and women whom they misrepresent. —Milwaukee Journal.

The Usual Result.
 Wellesley girl years for a "tall Apollo" in a dress suit. She'll probably find her ideal in a little sawed-off runt with a bald head and a squint.

Belgium, Greece, Persia.
 The American people sympathize with Belgium, but they are not morally bound to challenge any nation to war because of Belgium. If we should follow the advice of those who urge us to "action" in the case of Belgium we would be compelled to similar "action" with regard to the invasion of Persia and Greece by the allies. And if we backed our protests by war we would be fighting on both sides. These are issues of another world. Our world is the Western Hemisphere. We shall do well if we meet fairly and solve justly all the legitimate issues without going far afield to rake up trouble about Belgium and Korea. —Salt Lake Tribune.

Tungsten.
 Tungsten is probably the most remarkable mineral known. Pure metallic ductile tungsten is practically insoluble in any common acid; its melting point is higher than any other metal; its tensile strength exceeds that of steel; it is paramagnetic; it can be drawn to a smaller size than any other metal, and its specific gravity is 70 per cent. greater than lead. And what is more to the point, Colorado contains more tungsten than any other state or possibly all other states in the union. —Metal Mining Journal.

Reasonable Caution.
 It appears that the British army is losing many recruits because volunteers who have studied the matter object to inoculation. The London Abolitionist says: "We should like to meet the soldier who, in order to take part in the war, has been practically compelled to be inoculated against smallpox, typhoid, cholera, dysentery, blood-poisoning from wounds, and tetanus. Our reason for wishing to make his acquaintance is a doubt whether he would be alive. All these things have been recommended in the press.—Life.

When Powder is Wasted.
 "Don't waste powder, the war has just begun," say the Italians, and they paste these words on every box of ammunition. All powder, according to the theory of war, is wasted unless it wastes a life. It is a hard doctrine; but when the crash comes there is no getting away from it. —Brooklyn Eagle.

THAT TIRED FEELING

Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, Which Renovates the Blood.

That tired feeling that comes to you in the spring, year after year, is a sign that your blood lacks vitality, just as pimples, boils, and other eruptions are signs that it is impure; and it is also a sign that your system is in a low or run-down condition inviting disease. It is a warning, which it is wise to heed.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old standard tried and true blood medicine relieves that tired feeling. It cleanses the blood, gives new life, new courage, strength and cheerfulness. It makes the rich red blood that will make you feel, look, eat and sleep better.

Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. It embodies the careful training, experience, and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

Chicago Grain
(Associated Press Telegram)

Chicago, March 7.—Wheat showed increased weakness today largely as a result of the unsettled outlook as to American relations with Germany and because of the difficulties of shipping. A general snowfall in the winter crop states tended also to handicap the bulls. Lower quotations from Liverpool also counted further to weigh down prices here. The opening which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 5c down, with the close at 1.11 1/4 and July at 1.08 1/4 to 1/2 was followed by a sag all around with a subsequent steady recovery. Reports of the capture of the German sea raider Mowse helped afterward to cause another upturn but the effect failed to last. The close was nervous at 3c to 3 1/2 net decline with May 1.11 1/4 and July 1.08 1/4. There was persistent selling in small lots after opening a shade to 1/2c lower the market fluctuated within a range of about 3c and chiefly below yesterday's latest figures.

The fact that receipts were light and the prospect of a better domestic demand gave a slight respite to sentiment to the bulls. The close was unsettled at a shade to 1/2 net decline.

Oats had no independent action. Flour traders who did the bulk of the trading seemed to incline to the bear side.

Higher prices on hogs gave only transient strength to provisions. A subsequent downturn resulted from the weakness of grain.

In later trading the market was given support by packers and there were corresponding gains in prices.

BRANDEIS HAS SUPPORTERS OF APPOINTMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, March 7.—Advocates of the confirmation of the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis as a justice of the supreme court, had an inning today before the senate committee investigating charges against Mr. Brandeis.

Edward F. McCannan, law partner of Mr. Brandeis, was ready to continue his explanation of the various incidents for which Mr. Brandeis has been criticized. Newton D. Baker, former mayor of Cleveland, and president of the National Consumers' League had a petition for confirmation from a group of New York manufacturers, labor leaders, publicists and social workers.

The petition calls attention to Mr. Brandeis' successful advocacy before the United States Supreme court and State Supreme courts of five states of eight cases involving the constitutionality of statutes of industrial justice, to hours of labor and unhealthful conditions of employment.

"The fact that Mr. Brandeis' services in these important cases and, indeed, all the services to which we refer, were unpaid, and were the expressions of a lawyer's ideals in action, is a concrete tribute to the quality of his mind and heart," the petitioners stated.

Among the signers of the petition are Oscar Strauss, chairman of the New York Public Service commission; Frederick C. Howe, commissioner immigration, New York; Hamilton Holt, editor of the Independent; John Mitchell, chairman of the New York Industrial commission; Charles F. McFarland, secretary of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; Henry R. Senger, president of the American Association Labor Legislation; Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, New York; Charles R. Crane, Chicago; Edward T. Devine, New York; Mrs. Florence Kelley, secretary of the National Consumers' League; Owen R. Lovejoy, secretary of the National Child Labor committee; Henry Bruere, New York, and George W. Kirchwey, Ossining, N. Y.

Francis Peabody, of Milton, Mass., last of the "character" witnesses for those opposed to Mr. Brandeis, testified that Mr. Brandeis' reputation was that he was not trustworthy and sailed under false colors. Mr. Peabody testified that he had talked with more than fifty members of the Suffolk bar and only one gave him the impression that Mr. Brandeis was trustworthy and honorable.

"How far is the esteem in which Mr. Brandeis is held due to his being a Jew?" asked Senator Fletcher.

"I didn't know until the last few years that he was a Jew," the witness answered. When Mr. Baker appeared to present his petition he

SHAUCK'S REAL ESTATE BULLETIN

Over Franklin Bank

I have a 5 acre farm for sale on the Granville Road, highly improved, an excellent 12 room dwelling, modern with furnace, good barn and plenty of outbuildings, also 5 1/2 acres just off Granville Road, excellent location and soil, 6 room modern house and plenty outbuildings. A dandy little suburban home, 7 rooms, modern, practically new, one acre of land, located on the Granville car line. 80 acres, rolling, 8 room dwelling, plenty outbuildings besides good barn, good orchard, one mile north of Reform, cheap. 145 acres, good soil, good buildings in good repair, large sugar camp, eight miles northwest of town, $8700, 7 room, strictly modern, garage, newly built, not far out, good location, excellent property, priced right. 11 room, modern house, furnace, on W. Main street near High School, $4700.

Without his famous mustache, "canal boats" and bamboo rod, to say nothing of the "lid," you would never recognize in this clean-cut young Englishman the celebrated pantomime artist who has made millions out of his antics in the films. Charlie Chaplin spent the first years of his life in a poorhouse, but the chances are he will not go there again. He has just signed a contract with a big film corporation, granting him a salary of $670,000 for his next year's work.

SAVE YOUR HAIR!

25 CENT BOTTLE

STOPS DANDRUFF

EVERY BIT OF DANDRUFF DIS-
APPEARS AND HAIR STOPS
COMING OUT.

TRY THIS! YOUR HAIR APPEARS
GLOSSY, ABUNDANT, WAVY AND BEAUTIFUL.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, and incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few week's use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

In "Big Moments of Big Trials" Irvin S. Cobb says, "Editors and reporters are forever dreaming of the perfect murder story, which will be the story of a young and pretty woman, preferably an actress, accused of killing a rich man by poisoning him, with a lot of mystifying features and complications to go along with it. When this comes to pass, if it ever does, it will be, from the standpoint of public interest, a perfect story—which means circulation, which means everything to newspapers."

Suffered the Agony Of a Dozen Deaths

Prominent Farmer in Canada Describes His Recovery and Escape from the Operating Table.

In a letter to friends at Saskatoon, Mr. F. Gifford, of the Ball Rock Farm, Maymont, Saskatchewan, Canada, says: "Thanks to Fruitola and Traxo I am alive. I lay on my back for sixteen days, suffering the agonies of a dozen deaths. I began taking Fruitola and was relieved of a great many ailments. My health is now fully restored."

Fruitola possesses properties that act directly upon the intestinal parts. It is a great system cleanser, softening the congested waste and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and quickly expels the accumulation to the great relief of the patient. Traxo is a tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation. It serves to build up and strengthen the weakened, run-down system.

Fruitola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Newark they can be obtained at Evan's Drug Store, Warden Hotel Block.

VANATTA R. F. D. 1

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wince entertained a number of their friends and neighbors Saturday evening at their home north of Chatham. Among those present were Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wince, Mr. and Mrs. Elmas Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hunt, Paul Van Winkle and Miss Kerns, Misses Martha Preston, Golda Preston, Helen Parlett, Rose Parlett, Elizabeth Davison, Isabella Hall and Gladys Alspach. Messrs. Milton Householder, Peter Hall, Marion Preston, Roy Davison, Leo Davison, Ira Trux, Perry Crawford, Charlie Crawford, Ralph Weaver, and Ellis Parlett and Lawrence Haas.

After two young ladies rendered

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulant, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Santal Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it. These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers. They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Santal Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisonous gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and refreshing the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

some music on the piano a carpet rag sewing was indulged in by all; the couple sewing the most rags by weight received a prize which was a glass dish apiece. Elizabeth Davison and Elmas Van Winkle were the successful ones. The booby prize was won by Golda Preston and Roy Davison and was two wooden rattle balls. Next a lunch was served.

Pete Hall and Ed. Householder were Utica visitors last Saturday. Misses Helen, Rose and Clarice Parlett attended Sunday school at Chatham last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith visited the latter's sister Mrs. Geo. Conard of Granville, Tuesday. Mrs. Maggie McFaden attended the funeral of Mrs. Abbie Welsh at Zanesville, Wednesday of last week.

James Lingafelter and daughter Fanny drove to Newark, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lingafelter called on Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holter, Sunday evening.

BLACKHEADS GO QUICK BY THIS SIMPLE METHOD

Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body, go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of powdered norexin from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot wet sponge rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. The powdered norexin and the hot water have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leaves them open and unclean—and unless the blackheads are big and soft they will not come out, while the simple application of norexin and water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition. You can get powdered norexin at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method.—Advertisement.

DANCE OF THE BUCKEYE BAND WAS A SUCCESS

The dance given by the Buckeye Band boys at the K. of P. hall last evening was a very enjoyable affair, over one hundred couples participating and everybody present having a splendid time. An orchestra of seventeen pieces furnished the music and during the course of the evening Mr. Henry Sherrard sang "Mother" being forced to respond to several encores. Mr. Frank Streat, a popular singer of the B. & O. shops also favored those present with a number of vocal selections, his singing being one of the hits of the evening.

Col. Robert Dold, business manager of the band, acted as master of ceremonies and kept things moving at a lively rate. He surprised the dancers by marshaling the Buckeye boys upon the stage and the last four numbers on the program were danced to band music. The Buckeye boys will realize a nice little sum of money out of the affair which will go into their treasury to help defray the expenses of the organization. They are grateful to all who patronized them by purchasing tickets and to the newspapers for the publicity given the affair. The band boys are more than pleased at the treatment which they have received from the public and state that it will be their first endeavor to give the city one of the best musical organizations which can be found in Central Ohio and which will redound to the credit of Newark whenever they are called out of the city on special occasions.

A REVIVAL. Meetings at Pine Street C. U. church are increasing in interest and numbers. Large audiences greet the pastor every evening. The church is united and active. "The children's meeting" will be held Friday evening after dismissal of the school about 4 o'clock. Subject for this evening, "Three Nothings."

THORNABY STRUCK A MINE AND SANK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 2, 11:30 a. m.—Lloyds agent at Blythe reports that the British steamship Thornaby was sunk by a mine last Monday.

A dispatch of yesterday's date announced that the Thornaby had been sunk in the North Sea and that nearly all of the crew were killed or drowned. Later it was reported that the steamer Devereux had arrived in the Tyne bringing the steward of the Thornaby, who had been rescued from the wreck and reporting that two other persons had been saved by the steamer Highgate.

VESSEL IS SUNK 800 YARDS WITHIN SWEDISH WATERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Stockholm, via London, March 2, 6:45 a. m.—It has been learned that the Swedish steamer Knippia was sunk about 800 yards inside the limit of Swedish waters.

On February 29, it was announced that the Knippia, a vessel of 531 tons had struck a mine and sunk south of Falsterbo, Sweden and that the crew had been rescued.

On the same day a dispatch from Copenhagen reported that, according to a local newspaper, a large German flotilla was engaged in laying mines south of Falsterbo.

MAY KEEP OUT GERMAN IMPORTS AFTER THE WAR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 2, 11:15 a. m.—The Daily News learns that the inner circle of the cabinet will recommend the incorporation in the budget of an announcement that German imports will be prohibited after the war and also that measures will be taken in the nature of preferential duties, for the purpose of encouraging exports from the British colonies to the countries of the allies.

No decision is likely to be reached in the matter, adds the newspaper, until it has been considered by the entire cabinet as well as by the economic conference of the allies, the forthcoming meeting of which Reginald McKenna of the exchequer announced in his speech at the Guild Hall yesterday.

BRITISH GENERAL AMONG WOUNDED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 2, (2:42 A. M.)—Major General George Frederick Goring is mentioned in a casualty list just made public here as having been wounded in the fighting in Mesopotamia.

General Goring for several years preceding the present war had been in command of a brigade in India.

ITCHING ECZEMA HEALED RIGHT UP WITH AMOLOX

Use Like Cold Cream to Take Out Redness and Clear the Skin.

Amolox, the new scientific prescription, heals eczema and skin eruptions. It stops all itching and burning instantly. Simply apply to the diseased skin this mild, soothing prescription and all agonizing itch will be a thing of the past. Amolox ointment will quickly relieve pimples on the face, blackheads, and all minor skin troubles. Apply like cold cream. Sufferers from eczema, psoriasis, tetter and bad cases of skin diseases lasting for years, should use both Amolox liquid and ointment to effect a cure. Trial size, 50c. Guaranteed by T. J. Evans. Send postal for free sample to Amolox Laboratories, Youngstown, Ohio.

War Upon Pain.

Pain is a visitor in every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful. Mervin H. Soister, Berkeley, Cal. writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new." March, 1915. At Druggists 25c.

Ironing the Tablecloth.

A tablecloth should be pulled into shape before being ironed. After it is pulled into shape, fold it together lengthwise through the middle, so that the wrong side will be outside; then turn back the edges at each side so that the cloth is in four long folds, each fold of the same width. The outer folds will now be right side out. Iron these two outer folds, then turn them inside and iron the two inner folds that are now outside and are the right side of the tablecloth. When the four folds are thus finished the long length can be doubled back and forward the desired width, but the crosswise folds should not be ironed in. Papers can be placed where the tablecloth hangs over on the floor from the ironing board. A little practice will soon make you perfect. The old fashioned way was to first iron a tablecloth on the wrong side, but the tablecloths coming under my observation that look the best are ironed in the manner above described.—Eunice Haskins Independent Farmer.

COLD GONE! HEAD AND NOSE CLEAR

FIRST DOSE OF "PAPE'S COLD COMPOUND" RELIEVES ALL GRIPPE MISERY.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffing! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripple misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

H. O. STANTON WILL SING IN MUNY CONCERT

A number of Newark people will go to Zanesville tomorrow night to be present at the municipal concert to be given at the Weller theatre by the various musical organizations of the Pottery City. The seat sale opened yesterday and nearly all of the house was sold out before evening.

An excellent program has been prepared which includes numbers by the best talent in the city. Among the features will be an augmented band of 40 men which will be under the leadership of Bandmaster Ernest F. Snell and Bruce Tomlinson.

Mr. Oscar Stanton, director of the local Elk minstrel for the past several years assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Guise, noted Zanesville singers, and several others, will produce a scene from the "Bohemian Girl." Mr. Stanton states that it will be his farewell appearance in opera.

The proceeds from the concert will be contributed to the fund to provide entertainments in the public parks this coming summer.

Today's Beauty Talk

You can make a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost if you get from your druggist a package of canthrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and rub briskly. This creates an abundance of thick, white lather that thoroughly dissolves and removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly, with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is and takes on a rich luster and softness that make arranging it a pleasure.

LINCOLN'S PROMISE WILL BE REDEMED TO AGED VETERAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, March 2.—President Lincoln's promise made more than a half century ago to John Driscoll of Hampton, Va., said to be the oldest living survivor of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack during the Civil war, is about to be carried out by the navy department. After the naval engagement President Lincoln summoned the crew of the Monitor of which Driscoll was a member, to Washington. He thanked them for their valor and said that if any of them ever wanted a favor done all that was necessary was to ask it.

Driscoll decided to ask the proffered favor. He requested to be taken aboard a battleship going through the Panama canal, which he said he longed to see before he died. Arrangements for the trip have been just completed and the next warship that passes through the great waterway will carry the aged veteran as a passenger.

The New Coats-The New Suits

The New Skirts For Women Revealing The Authoritative Fashions

Generally speaking, the skirts are fuller than ever before. Bodices are tighter. Some are pointed—the styles of 1860 having been revived with their quaintness and charm, but combined with a smartness that relates them with society of today.

The Spring Suits are varied in their appeal. There are suits of fine Silks, Poiré Twill, French Whipcord, Gabardine, Serges and Checks that are teeming with new fashion ideas. But why continue—when the suits themselves are here for your convenient inspection.
$12.50 upward.

The Coats The collection is so varied in regard to style, fabric and color that one cannot say that such and such is the vogue. For instance, there are coats of Bolivia Cloth and other materials that are so smart, so distinguished in line, so superb in quality and in workmanship that they need not a bit of trimming to make them beautiful. Of course there are dressy coats, too.

There Will Be Souvenirs For Everybody

MOTHERS HONORED BY EVANGELIST AT WEST SIDE REVIVAL

Almost half the audience at the West Side Revival last night was made up of mothers. Evangelist MacDonald told the story of the influence of the mother of Moses in his training for his life work. To save him from death she made a little boat and placed him in the Nile river. When Pharaoh's daughter found him she said to the mother whom Miriam brought "Take this child away and nurse it for me." "This is what God would say to every mother. Raise it, train it, nurse it for me. Not for sin and Satan and pleasure and selfish money getting, but for Me." As the only school teacher she taught him the Jewish history and religion. It mothers today would spend time teaching their children how to pray and love God's love, and not so much worldly trash they would be more apt to grow up as Christian men and women. That would be big wages. The trouble today is that children get out and away from mothers' influence too early. At 4 they run the streets and before 6 learn to smoke and chew and swear because daddy does. They don't learn it from mother. Books, music, flowers, and good pictures have an uplifting influence in the home. Nothing is more in the home than the right atmosphere. Kindness and love. Mothers influence, mothers prayer, and mothers love were the three parts of the sermon.

MacDonaldism.
If you don't pray with your children the Devil will prey upon them. No matter how far a man may go astray mothers love and prayers will follow him.
If there were more bended knees there would be fewer broken hearts. Teach your child how to pray and God will give you your pay.

Doctors Agree On Eczema Remedy

Confirm the Statements About
D. D. D. Prescription

Geo. T. Richardson, M. D.: "In my opinion, D. D. D. should be applied in all cases of skin disease--an immediate relief to the itch, a calm to excited nerves, soft, soothing, yet a powerful agent, a strength to the general system."
Dr. Una Holmes: "D. D. D. is as near a specific for eczema and the dreaded pox as is quinine for malaria. I constantly prescribe D. D. D. also for salt rheum, nettle rash, itchy, pimples, all forms of itching eruptions, scales, sores."
Dr. Ira T. Gabbert: "I freely admit that D. D. D. reaches most cases of eczema and permanently cures them."
Dr. Gabriel of Caldwell, Kansas, is one of the best skin specialists in the state. Write and ask him about D. D. D.
Druggists are glad to recommend this soothing, cooling liquid, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Come to us and we will tell you more about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. D. Soap keeps your skin healthy. Ask about it.
Frank D. Hall, Druggist

How long has it been since you have written home to mother?

A rose for the living is better than a wreath for the dead.
'Tis better to buy a cheap bouquet To give to your friend this very day Than a bushel of roses white and red To lay on his casket when he's dead."

The atmosphere of the home makes or mars the child's disposition.

Some homes would make good cold storage plants.

If home is to be home-like there must be music and laughter, love and friendship.

What is home without a mother? A boarding house. A true home is more than that.

As sugar will draw the flies so sin will draw the boys.

Better spoil your carpet than lose your boy.

If there were a gymnasium and a set of carpenter's tools in every boy's back yard half the dens of sin would have to quit business.

There is no love like a mother's love except God's.

B. & O. TO EXHIBIT VARIOUS DEVICES FOR SAFETY FIRST

At the Safety First exhibit of the National Museum of Safety, which will be held in New York, the week of April 17, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will install an exhibit which will far surpass its display that received a grand prize at the last congress.

Bringing out the historical facts that America's first railroad, was the first to adopt so many of the refinements of transportation service, the first to organize a department of safety and enlist its employees in a sympathetic campaign of protection, the space which the pioneer road will use this year will be double the expense of its grand prize installation.

The earliest application of the principles of safety first in transportation service, devices applied to equipment insuring the safety of people and property will be shown through object lessons and photographs supplemented by records showing the decrease in accidents of all kinds.

President Willard's memorable statement that he considers "Safety First" above everything else in importance in railroad operation will be carried out in the scheme covering the company's exhibit in Grand Central Palace this year.

Children's Hospital Campaign.
Club women in this community will be interested in the big campaign which is being arranged for the Children's hospital of Columbus, and which is being conducted by the women board of managers of that institution. Letters soliciting interest have been sent to Newark. The campaign has for its object the raising of $300,000, one-half of which is to be expended in a new building and one-half to go to a permanent endowment. Those who have had occasion to deal with suffering children know that the doors of the institution never are closed to any tot needing medical or surgical attention.

Judge Neil Coming.
Judge Henry Neil, known as the "father of mothers' pensions," announces that he will come to Newark soon. Judge Neil receives no remuneration for his services. He has spoken in hundreds of cities before commercial clubs, labor councils, women's clubs, men's clubs and other organizations.

Operation on Shoulder.
Mrs. James Fitzsimmons of South Second street, who was injured last week when she was struck by a taxicab, underwent an operation at her home Thursday morning. Mrs. Fitzsimmons suffered an injury to her shoulder and the operation this morning was for the dislocation. The attending physicians were Drs. Dillon, Boyer and Legge.

Mt. Hermon U. B. Church.
Rev. M. R. White, pastor of the Tenth Street United Brethren church will speak at the Mt. Hermon U. B. church in McKean township on next Sunday afternoon, March 5, at 2 o'clock. The preaching service will follow the regular Sunday school service.

Condition Improved.
Miss Maud Thompson, who was taken to the Newark Sanitarium after taking carbolic acid, is resting easy today and her condition is greatly improved.

Lecture Course Number.
Col. George W. Bain, known as the "Kentucky Orator," appeared before a good sized audience at the High School Auditorium on Wednesday evening, being the sixth number on the lecture course. He spoke on "If I Could Live Life Over."

Adds New Lines.
Mrs. Belle Nichols is in Columbus today buying goods for her store. Mrs. Nichols has moved into the room at 25 North Third street, recently vacated by the Scotch Woolen Mills. In addition to dressmaking and millinery, Mrs. Nichols will add neckwear and lace—specializing on her lace stock.

JUDGE FULTON ON RAPID ROAD TO RECOVERY

Judge T. B. Fulton is rapidly convalescing at his home in East Main street and is now able to be up the greater part of the day.

It is not known at the present time whether Judge Fulton will be able to preside at the opening of court next Monday, at which time the jurors have been ordered to report, but if his improvement continues as rapidly as it has in the past couple of days he will possibly occupy the bench.

170 IS HIGH SCORE IN AUTO BASEBALL

The ten highest scores in the automatic baseball tournament up to today range from 152 to 179. Ferry and Parks are leading with the score 179. Other scores are: Murphy-Hutchinson, 171; Johnson-Eckelberry, 168; Ferry-Martin, 166; Murphy-Lewis, 163; Martin-Armstrong, 162; Chase-Moore, 155; Sheppard-Davis, 153; Russell-Russell, 152; Daniels-Heckelberry, 152.

BIG CONTRACTS ARE SECURED BY JEWETT CAR CO

The Jewett Car company has secured a number of big contracts within the past few weeks, and work will be started in a few days on cars for several companies.

They have a contract with the Northern Ohio Light and Traction company with headquarters at Akron for a $62,000 order. There will be 15 large steel cars. The company also has a contract with the Salt Lake & Ogden company for 16 cars, valued at $78,000.

Among the orders that will be completed in the near future is one from the state for a fish car which will cost $15,000. A contract has also been secured with the Boston Elevated company for 20 cars with an option on 15 more. These cars have an estimated value of about $300,000 each.

Propositions have been submitted to Brooklyn, Binghampton, Syracuse, N. Y., and Toronto, Canada, and it is probable that contracts will be secured from companies in those cities.

Justice Jones' Court.
A train rider named Nickolson was picked up by B. & O. detectives last night and was brought before Justice D. M. Jones and charged with train riding and trespassing. Justice Jones gave the offender a little advice and added a fine of five dollars and costs to the same.

Hudson Super-Six

The Greatest Car of All Time

80% More Efficiency New Limits of Endurance

The World's Record Breaker

A 7-Passenger Super-Six Makes Fastest Time for Touring Cars up to 100 Miles, in Official Tests, Under A. A. A. Supervision.

100 miles in 80 min., 21.4 sec., averaging 74.67 miles per hour, with driver and passenger.

The best previous stock car time was made by a car with more cylinders, more cylinder capacity and driven only.

75.69 miles in one hour with driver and passenger.

Some laps were made at 75.75 miles per hour.

70.74 miles in one hour, carrying 5 passengers, with top and windshield up.

The best previous time for stock car similarly equipped was made by a car with more cylinders, more cylinder capacity, and with two passengers only.

During these tests the car was driven 1350 miles at top capacity, at speed exceeding 70 miles per hour, without discoverable wear on any part.

The Super-Six was not built for speed. But speed requires power, and it also proves endurance.

A new monarch appears in Motordom this year, with records to prove its supremacy.

It is a light-weight Six, simple and economical. No added cylinders or size.

But it shows 80 per cent more efficiency than like-size motors heretofore developed.

It means that a Six—the ideal type of motor—has outtraveled Eights and Twelves. Its records have never been matched.

And this Super-Six is a Hudson invention, controlled by Hudson patents. So, for the first time, an epoch-making feature is found in but one car.

SMALL, LIGHT, BUT 76 H. P.

The Hudson Super-Six, with this patented motor, remains in the Light Six class. Its cylinders are 3 1/2 x 5—identical with the Hudson Six-40. And its motor follows long-established practice in all respects save one. It involves no experiments whatever.

The legal rating of this-size motor is 29.4 horsepower. That's the rating accorded by the Society of Automobile Engineers.

In the best former types this size was made to deliver 42 horsepower at maximum.

The Super-Six delivers 76 horsepower.

That's 80 per cent more than formerly.

Auto Phone 1849

change small opposition. One rarely needs to change from high gear.

There is hardly a condition where the Super-Six is taxed beyond one-half capacity. And that means vast fuel economy.

This utter smoothness also multiplies endurance. In that Speedway test 1350 miles were made at top capacity. No other stock car motor ever built has stood an equal test. Years of ordinary driving would not match that strain. Yet the Super-Six came through that test without any discoverable wear. That means endurance far beyond the farthest limits ever known before.

HUDSON NOW SUPREME

The Super-Six makes Hudson the greatest stock performer. Official records prove that beyond possible dispute. And a half-mile ride will fix the fact so you never can forget it.

The finest Sixes of the past now confront a like-size Six which is 80 per cent more efficient. And a Six so economical—so saving of waste—that no lower price is attractive.

Eights and Twelves have been outdone in the objects which they aimed at. No excuse remains for their extra weight, extra cylinders and extra complications.

So the Super-Six is the greatest value at any price which the world has ever seen.

SIX LUXURIOUS BODIES

We have made the Super-Six so it looks its supremacy. Six of the finest bodies have been created for it. We have simply aimed at the farthest limit in luxury and beauty.

And again we have doubled our output. This season's production of the Super-Six will sell for $42,000,000.

See the Super-Six. Then prove its supremacy, at the first opportunity, by taking a ride in our demonstrators.

Join The Class In Crocheting and Knitting

The Lessons are Free and are given by Miss Markham, an expert from the Golden Fleece yarn factory. It's a splendid opportunity for you to learn the new stitches, and make any article you desire, under her instruction. She will be here all of next week, so you will have ample time to finish the piece. You can come in at any hour after nine o'clock in the morning.

The Hand Embroidered Way

Enables you to have beautiful pieces of lingerie and household articles at only a fraction of the cost of similar articles, when purchased in the usual way.

The Spring Line of Royal Society Stamped Goods contains all that new. Kimonos and combination suits in pink. In white, children's garments in dresses, coats, hats, drawers, petticoats and gowns. Ladies gowns, combination suits, dressing jackets, aprons, breakfast caps, luncheon sets, center pieces, scarfs, pillows, etc. Finished Models showing how these pieces look when finished, are here for your inspection. Come in and look over the finished pieces and then select the one you want to embroider.

The New Dresses For Spring

Show many variations, with skirts flaring at the bottom, others with full tunics and draperies in many striking effects. The bodices show dainty trimmings of lace, fancy collars, loose folds of silk over Georgette crepe combinations. The colorings are beautiful.

Separate Skirts Were Never As Popular

The natural result is a wonderful assortment of skirts to lend variety to one's wardrobe. Sport skirts as well as the dressier models are in big demand at the present time, and we are pleased to announce our early showing of all that's new in separate skirts. Handsome models in silk in more plaids, fancy stripes, plain taffetas, silk failles, in wool fancy stripes in grey, black and white plaids, chudah silk, white broadcloth, golfine in white, rose and blue.

Beautiful Blouses Are On Display

The separate skirt calls for dainty waists. Among the new models now ready are soft crepes, dainty lingers, wash silks, lace waists with chiffon lining and silver trimmings. Soiree silk, a new fabric on the market is shown in dainty models in white, peach and blue. Another striking model has a finished pelum to be worn on the outside, cut in rose, nile and maize with pipings of white. White with pipings of rose and nile.

"Can't Cut Off My Leg," Says Railroad Engineer

"I am a railroad engineer, about 26 years ago my leg was seriously injured in an accident out West. Upon my refusing to allow the doctor to amputate it I was told it would be impossible to heal the wound. I have tried all kinds of salves and had many doctors in the past 20 years, but to no avail. Finally I resolved to use PETERSON'S OINTMENT on my leg. You cannot imagine my astonishment when I found it was doing what over 100 things failed to do. My leg is now completely cured."—Gus Hauff, 759 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. "It makes me feel proud to be able to produce an ointment like that," says Peterson. "Not only do I guarantee Peterson's Ointment for old sores and wounds, but for Eczema, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Itching Skin and Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles. And I put up a big box for 25 cents, a price all can afford to pay and money back from your druggist if not satisfied."

Why You Should Bathe Internally

Under our present mode of living Nature, unassisted, cannot dispose of all the waste. This waste sends its poisons into the system, through the blood circulation, and brings on countless ills. That's the reason a physician's first step in illness is to give a laxative. Physicians generally, in order to stop this accumulation of waste, are now advising the use of J. B. L. Cascade, Nature's cure for Constipation, which rides the lower intestine of all waste and keeps it healthy without drugging.

TANLAC BANISHES PAINS, BUILDS UP STRENGTH AND DRIVES AWAY ACCUMULATED GAS.

"Tanlac Has Had a Fine Effect on Me and I Recommend it to Those Affected Similarly."

Mr. Wm. J. Stoepker an employee 16 Flory avenue and who is a well known man, called at Hall's Drug Store a day or two ago and bought his second bottle of Tanlac. When asked what effect Tanlac had on him, if any, he said,—"It has had a fine effect on me—I suffered from stomach trouble—had pains in my abdomen and as I had seen where it helped others whose complaints were like mine and I decided to try it. I am much improved—pains banished, stomach very much more comfortable and relieved the gas I feel stronger and better in every way. I now recommend it to those suffering as I did because it helped me and I believe it will others." Tanlac also is excellent for catarrh, rheumatism, liver and kidney troubles, the after effects of la grippe and pneumonia, and is a splendid nerve tonic or system purifier. Tanlac is demonstrated at Hall's Drug Store and is for sale at Granville by W. P. Ullman, at Utica by P. H. Richardson, at Hebron by the Hebron Drug Co., at Pataskala by J. R. Strine. 2-29-16

ROOSEVELT IS DETERMINED TO KEEP OUT RACE

New York, March 1.—Theodore Roosevelt's determination not to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the presidential nomination in the spring primary elections was emphasized today by the announcement that his secretary, John W. McGrath, has directed the withdrawal of Mr. Roosevelt's name from the Illinois primaries.

On receipt of information from the Illinois secretary of state that Mr. Roosevelt was named in the petitions of candidates for election as district delegates, Mr. McGrath informed Mr. Roosevelt by cable and acting upon his instructions, notified the Illinois officials.

This is the fourth state in which Mr. Roosevelt has refused to allow the use of his name. The others are Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan. Mr. Roosevelt is now on a trip to the West Indies.

Eating and Fighting.
It is not creditable to a thinking people that the two things they most thank God for should be eating and fighting. We say grace when we are going to cut up lamb and chicken, and when we have stuffed ourselves to an extent that an orang outang would be ashamed of we offer up our best praises to the Creator for having blown and savored his "images," our fellow creatures, to atoms and drenched them in blood and dirt.—Leitch Hunt.

Granville

(Special to Advocate.)
Granville, March 3.—There seems to be but one opinion as to the merits of the program presented by the Women's Music club, Wednesday afternoon, March 1, and that is that it deserves the name of "Artists' Recital." That yesterday's offering should be in the nature of a climax to all that have preceded, is due partly to the planning of the program committee, who with Mrs. J. S. Jones at its head, gave many hours and days of faithful work to its completion, and partly to the performers themselves, who find themselves more and more equal to the calls upon their time and their ability. There is an ever increasing incentive to work, and to give of their best. It is also a liberal education to listen to Mrs. C. B. White's answers to the "Question Box" which she gives at each meeting in a thoroughly enlightening way. The president, Mrs. W. P. Ullman, was in the chair yesterday and after the brief business meeting called upon Mrs. C. D. Coons to explain the program, which she did with thoroughness and conscientiousness. Only Russian composers were represented, and it was like meeting a room full of strangers, in magnificent and colorful raiment of unfamiliar and barbaric design, all the more fascinating from their very strangeness. The leader touched upon the native conditions which have inevitably influenced the national music the vastness of the prairies, the lovely summer, the dreary winter the patient poverty or long suffering peasants. She described the classes of musicians and composers, the long and arduous course of eight years which they must undergo before they are pronounced ready, and something of the nature of the music which distinguishes it from that of other nations; the use of the antique modes, the mingling of tonalities, the change and varied rhythms, the extremes of savage gaiety and profound melancholy, the martial and festival tones, cradle songs, and the lyrics of the peasants. The instrumental music characterized by boldness, originality, the use of the minor, the marked rhythm and subtle melodic changes, full of strength and power, the vocal music charming and full of melody.

The demands of the program upon the performers were tremendous, but each rose to the occasion in most triumphant manner. The two-piano duet by Mrs. C. B. White and Mrs. Susan Bauden was a revelation in technique and interpretation. It was a "call of the wild" to the imagination, magnificently rendered, and the players received an insistent demand for its repetition, a demand they politely declined to heed. Mrs. C. J. Loveless in the double number assigned to her, proved herself more than equal to the exacting demands of the difficult but fascinating composition, and was warmly applauded. Mrs. J. S. Jones played two numbers in a thoroughly musicianly and finished manner. She possesses splendid technique and the true musician's insight which imparted to her performance a wonderful charm. Mrs. Theodore Johnson and Mrs. Roe Morrow each gave a group of songs in a way to charm the audience, and to win a storm of plaudits. Mrs. Ullman's chorus was a sextette, composed of Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Stickney, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Ogilvie, Mrs. Loveless. The composition has full of color, warmth, shifting lights and shadows, and a strange elusive charm. The trio was sung by Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Stickney.

At the close of the official program, the president called upon Mrs. W. W. Davis, president of the Newark Women's Music club, to favor the company with a selection. She graciously responded with an exquisite rendering of Hansel's "If I Were a Bird," so enthusiastically received that she was forced to respond with an encore. Roff's "Spinning Song" furnished fresh demonstration of Mrs. Davis' mastery of the key board, and her selections were like the beloved presence of old friends after a sojourn among interesting strangers—but old friends idealized by her perfect interpretations.

BEST WAY TO CURE COLD IN CHEST

Doctors advise not to allow cold in chest or sore throat to hang on. Pneumonia often results. The minute your chest or throat shows signs of soreness rub on true Mustaine, which only costs about 25 cents, and which any druggist can give you in the original yellow box. It stops pain and congestion and there's blessed relief in every rub.
The Best Medicine Co., of Rochester, N. Y., makes true Mustaine, and tens of thousands of it because it acts so quickly and is so much better than liniments or internal remedies. T. J. Evans guarantees it.
